

BOARD PROFILE

Director Name	Lorene Phillips
Current occupation and/or immediate past occupation	Founder, Executive & Leadership Coach and Facilitator at Clarendon Wallace
Brief Career Description	Seasoned (re)insurance executive turn founder of Clarendon Wallace, a leading Corporate Coaching and Leadership consulting firm. Lorene services leadership development for professionals both at the executive and foundation levels. Prior to starting Clarendon Wallace, Lorene was Senior Vice President Reinsurance Underwriter at Sompo International where she played a key role in the development of opportunities within the London Market. For over two decades Lorene successfully achieved against agreed KPIs. After starting her underwriting career at AXA XL she rose through the ranks of Allied World Assurance, transitioning from lead insurance underwriter to reinsurance underwriter culminating in an overseas promotion to develop the company's reinsurance portfolio in Lloyds of London for the Lloyds Syndicate 2232.
Other Community related involvement	Since returning to the island late October 2019: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaking coach with the WeSpeak professional speaking organization. • Lorene serves on the board of Packwood Home where she lends her business skills to fundraising initiatives. • Routinely offer her coaching services on a pro bono basis to organizations and individuals who need her services but unable to pay for them. • Supports the Bermuda Foundation for Insurance with coaching and training services and most recently with fundraising support.
Thoughts on joining Bermuda College Foundation	"As a successful Bermuda College Alumni, this is a well-timed opportunity for me to give back by using my commercial skillsets and my passion to help others, to elevate the status and the contribution of the Bermuda College not only in Bermuda but also internationally. Bermuda College and all that it offers should no longer be the 'best kept secret'."

